

“5 Essex Court’s barristers are at the cutting edge of everything”

Chambers UK

Top-tier civil law set of chambers recognised for our exemplary client service, depth and breadth of experience in our specialist areas and the outstanding quality of our counsel

5 Essex Court
Temple, London
EC4Y 9AH

T: 020 7410 2000
E: clerks@5essexcourt.co.uk
W: 5essexcourt.co.uk

Alison Hewitt
Call: 1984

Alison has specialised in inquests and coronial law, and associated judicial review, for over 15 years. She also has a significant police law practice which covers civil claims, judicial review and misconduct, and she continues to maintain her long-term personal injury practice. Additionally, Alison acts as a legal advisor to the General Dental Council.

Recent high profile examples of her work include acting as counsel to the inquests into the deaths of Poppi Worthington and Cerys Yemm and Matthew Williams.

Alison Hewitt was appointed HM Senior Coroner for the City of London (a part-time post) in 2016 and also sits as an Assistant Coroner in the coroner areas of Manchester (West) and Surrey.

Recommendations

"A fantastic coronial lawyer. She has become the go-to for coroners and is a good cross-examiner and real delight to work with in a case. (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2020

"Alison is a true inquest specialist and very good counsel to the inquiry. She's steeped in the law and has a diplomatic touch in dealing with the role" (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2020

"Excellent and methodical as well as a respected and trusted advocate. " (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Legal 500 2020

"She's well respected in the field and is very thorough." (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2019

'Hugely respected for inquests – good at advising coroners and they use her a great deal.' (Inquests and Inquiries)
Legal 500 2019

"She has the right balance in making sure that her clients' interests are protected, but also facilitating the rights of families to the truth." (Inquests and Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2017

"She has a complete grasp of the material, is technically very good and her advocacy is superb." (Inquests and Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2018

"She is very knowledgeable about coronial law. An undoubtedly sound grasp of the law. Also, she is exceptionally user-friendly." (Inquests and Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2018

“A coronial and police law specialist.” (Inquests and Inquiries)
Legal 500 2017

“Extremely experienced and very knowledgeable about coronial law. She handles difficult briefs with tenacity without being too aggressive.” (Inquests and Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2017

“She knows what you are trying to achieve in an inquest, her questions are properly inquisitive and she gets to the nub of the issue without being aggressive.” (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2016

“She is very professional and thorough, and handles her cases with real enthusiasm.” (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2016

“Clients benefit from her experience as an assistant coroner.” (Inquests)
Legal 500 UK 2015

“She is excellent in her attention to detail, and also has a great relationship with clients.” (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2015

“She’s probably one of the best barristers I’ve ever seen in a coroner’s court, as she’s excellent on her feet, in her strategy and in her line of questioning.” (Inquests & Public Inquiries)
Chambers UK 2015

“She has a very effective and consensual approach. She is well known and well-liked by coroners.” (Inquests)
Chambers UK 2014

Inquests

In 2002 Alison represented two Coroners at the Shipman Inquiry and her particular interest and expertise in coronial law grew from there. She is ranked in Band 1 for inquests by Chambers UK who record that clients consider Alison to have “... a complete grasp of the material, is technically very good and her advocacy is superb” and is “Extremely experienced and very knowledgeable about coronial law. She handles difficult briefs with tenacity without being too aggressive”.

Alison has extensive and wide-ranging inquest experience. She pioneered the role of “Counsel to the Inquest”, having first acted in that capacity in 2004 in the long-running inquest into the death of Robbie Powell Deceased. Since then she has fulfilled the role in over 15 further lengthy, complex and high-profile inquests. Her other clients include Chief Constables of Police, private prisons, doctors and NHS Trusts, care homes, local authorities, child care agencies, construction companies and other employers, and families. Additionally, as an experienced Coroner, Alison has herself conducted numerous Article 2 compliant inquests, including many in which the deceased person was in custody or detained under the Mental Health Act.

As a result of all her work, Alison’s particular areas of expertise are complex inquests, often involving state agencies. These include deaths in custody, deaths involving the Police or following restraint, deaths resulting from domestic violence and deaths raising issues as to the clinical care provided for physical or mental illness.

Her inquest work includes the following:

Paul Chin [ongoing] – Representing a Care Home in which the Deceased died from an acute illness.

Gracie Foster [ongoing] – Representing an NHS Trust and its medical staff in relation to the death of a 4 year old who was discharged from hospital and died shortly afterwards.

Terrence Smith [2018] - Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Surrey. An 11 week inquest into the death of a man suffering excited delirium who died under police restraint whilst detained under section 136 of the Mental Health Act.

Poppi Worthington [2017] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Cumbria. The Deceased was a 13 month old baby whose cause of death raised complex medical, pathological and factual issues.

Michael Thompson [2017] - Five week inquest before HM Senior Coroner for Southwark.. The Deceased suffered Mental Health difficulties and died after setting fire to his flat whilst awaiting a Mental Health Act assessment. I represented the Approved Mental Health Professional and the London Borough of Bromley.

Cerys Yemm and Matthew Williams [2017] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Gwent. Shortly after being released from prison Matthew Williams assaulted and killed Cerys Yemm. He died shortly afterwards after being restrained and tasered by the police.

Susan Norman [2016] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Cornwall. An inquest concerned with the death of a woman killed in a landslide on to her home which raised long-term planning issues in relation to the County Council.

Zane Gbangbola [2016] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Surrey. This inquest concerned the death of a 7 year old boy who died as a result of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Kamal Nour [2016] – Representing the Chief Constable of Norfolk in a case in which the Deceased killed himself whilst “under siege” from the police.

Van Hagan [2016] – Representing Birmingham City Council’s Children’s Department. This was an inquest into the drug related death of a mother who was suspected to be the victim of coercive control.

Andrew Pimlott [2015] – Representing the Chief Constable of Devon and Cornwall Police. The Deceased died from burn injuries after being tasered by a police officer.

Maher, Roberts and Dunsby [2015] – Representing the investigating police force at the “Brecon Beacons” inquest in relation to an issue of disclosure by the coroner to the Media.

Lloyd Butler [2014] – Representing the Chief Constable of West Midlands Police. This case concerned the death of a detainee who died in a cell in police custody.

Maria Stubbings [2014] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Essex for the preparatory stages of the investigation into the death of a woman who was killed by her partner, Marc Chivers, who had previously been imprisoned for murder in Germany.

Maureen Leaver [2013] – Representing the Family of an elderly woman who died after being detained under the Mental Health Act and suffering hypothermia as a result of medication (in West Sussex Coroner’s Court).

Rachel Slack, Auden Slack and Andrew Cairns [2013] – Representing the Chief Constable of Derbyshire in a case in which a mother and her young son were killed by her former partner. The case raised issues about the care given by mental health services and the protection provided by the police (in Derby Coroner’s Court).

Jimmy Mubenga [2013] – Representing three Detention Custody Officers who had custody of the deceased when he died as a result of their restraint on an aircraft during his deportation (in West London Coroner’s Court).

Nunes and Markland [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Hampshire. The two deceased men were shot by the police whilst carrying out an armed robbery.

Ian Tomlinson [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for Sir Peter Thornton QC (former Chief Coroner) sitting as ADC for the City of London. The deceased was a passer-by who died during the G20 protests in London after having been pushed by a police officer.

Naomi Bryant [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Hampshire. This case concerned a woman who was murdered by a life-sentenced prisoner who had been released on licence.

Colette Lynch [2009] – Counsel to the Inquest for Sir Christopher Pitchers sitting as ADC for Warwickshire. This case concerned a young woman who was killed by her mentally unwell partner and it raised issues about the protection given to her by the police, social services and mental health services.

Police Law

Alison represents the police in inquests, judicial reviews and civil actions. She also advises on many aspects of police powers including both policy and operational issues. Alison has regularly been instructed to represent Appropriate Authorities and advise Panels in police misconduct proceedings.

Examples of inquests are set out in the inquests section.

Examples of judicial review cases include:

R. (on the application of P and others) v Secretary of State for the Home Department* [2017] EWCA Civ 321 - represented the Metropolitan Commissioner in the Court of Appeal as part of linked appeals which considered the lawfulness of the revised statutory scheme for the disclosure of convictions and its compatibility with Article 8 ECHR.

R (NE and NM) v Birmingham Magistrates’ Court and Chief Constable of West Midlands Police* [2015] EWHC 688 (Admin) - the President of the QBD ruled upon the proper approach to be taken to an application by a serious sexual offender for release from the indefinite notification requirements in the Sexual Offences Act 2003.

R (Krol) v The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis* [2014] EWHC 4552 (Admin) - the court ruled that the police’s refusal to expunge a caution for the offence of actual bodily harm by a mother in punishing her young daughter did not breach her Article 8 rights.

Public / Administrative

Alison regularly advises and appears in the Administrative Court in relation to claims for judicial review or applications under section 13 of the Coroners Act 1988, usually acting on behalf of Coroners or Police Constabularies.

Reported cases over the last few years include the following:

Mueller v Area Coroner for Manchester West [2017] EWHC 3000 (Admin) - an application under s.13 of the Coroners Act 1988 in which the President of the QBD gave guidance on the conduct of “documentary” inquests.

R (on the application of P and others) v Secretary of State for the Home Department [2017] EWCA Civ 321 - represented the Metropolitan Commissioner as part of linked appeals which considered the lawfulness of the revised statutory scheme for the disclosure of convictions and its compatibility with Article 8 ECHR.

R (SofS for Transport) v HM Senior Coroner for Norfolk [2016] EWHC 2279 (Admin) - the Lord Chief Justice ruled that coroners’ powers under schedule 5 of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 did not enable them to order the Air Accidents Investigation Branch to disclose cockpit voice and flight data recordings. The Court also gave guidance concerning overlapping investigatory jurisdictions.

R (NE and NM) v Birmingham Magistrates’ Court and Chief Constable of West Midlands Police [2015] EWHC 688 (Admin) - the President of the QBD ruled upon the proper approach to be taken to an application by a serious sexual offender for release from the indefinite notification requirements in the Sexual Offences Act 2003.

HM Senior Coroner for Cumbria v Smith [2015] EWHC 2465 (Admin) - an application under s.13 of the Coroners Act 1988 for a fresh inquest into the death of Poppi Worthington, a 13 month old baby suspected to have suffered abuse.

Flower v HM Senior Coroner for Devon [2015] EWHC 3666 (Admin) - the Court clarified the law by ruling that a decision by a coroner not to resume an inquest after criminal proceedings does not make him functus officio.

R (Krol) v The Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis [2014] EWHC 4552 (Admin) - the court ruled that the police’s refusal to expunge a caution for the offence of actual bodily harm by a mother in punishing her young daughter did not breach her Article 8 rights.

Brown v HM Coroner for Norfolk and the Chief Constable of Norfolk Constabulary [2014] EWHC 187 (Admin) - an application for a fresh inquest under s.13 of the Coroners Act 1988. The judgment provides guidance from the Chief Coroner concerning pre-inquest review hearings.

Wilkinson v HM Coroner for Manchester (South) [2012] EWHC 2755 (Admin) - the use of the “unlawful killing” conclusion in cases where the death has resulted from careless driving and concluded that driving offences causing death could not justify that verdict.

Personal Injury

Alison acts for both claimants and defendants and has extensive experience of injuries sustained in custody, at work or in road traffic incidents. She has conducted many cases which are clinically complex, and are of high value, including serious head injuries. Alison is also regularly instructed in relation to Article 2 / dependency claims arising after inquest proceedings.

Healthcare

Alison has specialised in inquests and coronial law, and associated judicial review, for over 15 years. She also has a significant police law practice which covers civil claims, judicial review and misconduct, and she continues to maintain her long-term personal injury practice. Additionally, Alison acts as a legal advisor to the General Dental Council.

Recent high profile examples of her work include acting as counsel to the inquests into the deaths of Poppi Worthington and Cerys Yemm and Matthew Williams. Alison Hewitt was appointed HM Senior Coroner for the City of London (a part-time post) in 2016 and also sits as an Assistant Coroner in the coroner areas of Manchester (West) and Surrey.

In 2002 Alison represented two Coroners at the Shipman Inquiry and her particular interest and expertise in coronial law grew from there. She is ranked in Band 1 for inquests by Chambers UK who record that clients consider Alison to have "... a complete grasp of the material, is technically very good and her advocacy is superb" and is "Extremely experienced and very knowledgeable about coronial law. She handles difficult briefs with tenacity without being too aggressive".

She pioneered the role of "Counsel to the Inquest", having first acted in that capacity in 2004 in the long-running inquest into the death of Robbie Powell Deceased. Since then she has fulfilled the role in over 15 further lengthy, complex and high-profile inquests. Her other clients include Chief Constables of Police, private prisons, doctors and NHS Trusts, care homes, local authorities, child care agencies, construction companies and other employers, and families.

Additionally, as an experienced Coroner, Alison has herself conducted numerous Article 2 compliant inquests, including many in which the deceased person was in custody or detained under the Mental Health Act. As a result of all her work, Alison's particular areas of expertise are complex inquests, often involving state agencies. These include deaths in custody, deaths involving the Police or following restraint, deaths resulting from domestic violence and deaths raising issues as to the clinical care provided for physical or mental illness.

Her inquest work includes the following:

- Paul Chin [ongoing] – Representing a Care Home in which the Deceased died from an acute illness.
- Gracie Foster [ongoing] – Representing an NHS Trust and its medical staff in relation to the death of a 4 year old who was discharged from hospital and died shortly afterwards.
- Terrence Smith [2018] - Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Surrey. An 11 week inquest into the death of a man suffering excited delirium who died under police restraint whilst detained under section 136 of the Mental Health Act.
- Poppi Worthington [2017] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Cumbria. The Deceased was a 13 month old baby whose cause of death raised complex medical, pathological and factual issues.
- Michael Thompson [2017] - Five week inquest before HM Senior Coroner for Southwark.. The Deceased suffered Mental Health difficulties and died after setting fire to his flat whilst awaiting a Mental Health Act assessment. She represented the Approved Mental Health Professional and the London Borough of Bromley.
- Cerys Yemm and Matthew Williams [2017] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Gwent. Shortly after being released from prison Matthew Williams assaulted and killed Cerys Yemm. He died shortly afterwards after being restrained and tasered by the police.
- Susan Norman
[2016] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Cornwall. An inquest concerned with the death of a woman killed in a landslide on to her home which raised long-term planning issues in relation to the County Council.
- Zane Gbangbola
[2016] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Surrey. This inquest concerned the death of a 7 year old boy who died as a result of carbon monoxide poisoning.
- Kamal Nour [2016] – Representing the Chief Constable of Norfolk in a case in which the Deceased killed himself whilst "under siege" from the police.
- Van Hagan [2016] – Representing Birmingham City Council's Children's Department. This was an inquest into the drug related death of a mother who was suspected to be the victim of coercive control.

-
- Andrew Pimlott [2015] – Representing the Chief Constable of Devon and Cornwall Police. The Deceased died from burn injuries after being tasered by a police officer.
 - Maher, Roberts and Dunsby [2015] – Representing the investigating police force at the “Brecon Beacons” inquest in relation to an issue of disclosure by the coroner to the Media.
 - Lloyd Butler [2014] – Representing the Chief Constable of West Midlands Police. This case concerned the death of a detainee who died in a cell in police custody.
 - Maria Stubbings [2014] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Senior Coroner for Essex for the preparatory stages of the investigation into the death of a woman who was killed by her partner, Marc Chivers, who had previously been imprisoned for murder in Germany.
 - Maureen Leaver [2013] – Representing the Family of an elderly woman who died after being detained under the Mental Health Act and suffering hypothermia as a result of medication (in West Sussex Coroner’s Court).
 - Rachel Slack, Auden Slack and Andrew Cairns [2013] – Representing the Chief Constable of Derbyshire in a case in which a mother and her young son were killed by her former partner. The case raised issues about the care given by mental health services and the protection provided by the police (in Derby Coroner’s Court).
 - Jimmy Mubenga [2013] – Representing three Detention Custody Officers who had custody of the deceased when he died as a result of their restraint on an aircraft during his deportation (in West London Coroner’s Court).
 - Nunes and Markland [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Hampshire. The two deceased men were shot by the police whilst carrying out an armed robbery.
 - Ian Tomlinson [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for Sir Peter Thornton QC (former Chief Coroner) sitting as ADC for the City of London. The deceased was a passer-by who died during the G20 protests in London after having been pushed by a police officer.
 - Naomi Bryant [2011] – Counsel to the Inquest for HM Coroner for Hampshire. This case concerned a woman who was murdered by a life-sentenced prisoner who had been released on licence.
 - Colette Lynch [2009] – Counsel to the Inquest for Sir Christopher Pitchers sitting as ADC for Warwickshire. This case concerned a young woman who was killed by her mentally unwell partner and it raised issues about the protection given to her by the police, social services and mental health services.